SYNOPSIS

Student's may face discontent or dispute which could arise at any level in an academic institution. Most times student's fail to express and sometimes fail to seek proper support for the issues they face arising at numerous levels. As a remedy to all these problems we would like to introduce our STUDENTS CELL application to give better acknowledgement and information to students regarding the institution. Here students can express all their problems and we will be providing them with the needful help and information. It focus on students hunch, various different types of event going on in our college, student's can also come forward with better innovative ideas and also give information about various cultural or technical or any sports which is supposed to be held soon. These all procedures will lead to not only better student's satisfaction but also create path for the better development of the institution.
